

Maawanji'iding gekinoo'amaagejig (Gathering of Teachers)
Professional Development Climate Change "Teach-In"
Thursday, August 18, 2022 9 am- 3 pm
Fond du Lac Tribal and Community College, Cloquet MN

Our Learning Journey

9:00 am Opening Ceremony, Welcome, and Teach-In Overview

9:30 Teach-In Sessions Begin: Three 45-minute sessions will be held in the morning and three in the afternoon. Educators can rotate between sessions.

"Beings on the Move" Examining the climate change vulnerability of culturally important plants and animals. Presenter: Hannah Panci, Scientist, Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission Climate Change Program. (this is an outdoor session).

Tribal Climate Adaptation Strategies and applying them at a school/community level. Presenters: Marne Kaeske-Cultural Preservation Specialist and Tyler Kaspar-Environmental Biologist and Marne, 1854 Treaty Authority.

Aanji-Kamigaa (Changing Earth), Climate Change and Ojibwemowin. Presenter: Michael Waasegiizhig Price, M.S.-Traditional Ecological Knowledge (TEK) Specialist, Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission.

Drawing From Knowledge Systems and Worldviews Using a Transformative Collection Approach and using techniques such as storytelling, talking circles, theatre arts, music and dance, hands-on activities, Ojibwe language and sustainable environments. Presenter Govinda Budrow-Faculty, Fond du Lac Tribal and Community College.

"Gikinoo'wizhiwe Onji Waaban" (Guiding for Tomorrow)- using the "G-WOW" model and curriculum for integrating place-based, TEK and SEK for climate action in all cultures, grades, locations. Presenter: Cat Techtmann- Environmental Outreach Specialist, University of Wisconsin-Extension.

Teach Climate! Empowering students with the knowledge, resources, and support to understand the evidence-based science and impacts of climate change and create equitable solutions inside the classroom, and out. Seth Spencer-Teach Climate Network Coordinator, Climate Generation.

11:45-12:30 Lunch Break

Over

Afternoon Teach-in session rotations continue
2:45 Closing Ceremony
3:00 Chi Miigwech! Safe Journey Home!

Maawanji'iding gekinoo'amaagejig (Gathering of Teachers)

Climate Change "Teach-In" Partners

